QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER

EYE ON THE PRIZE

Louis V. is a recent Here's Help residential program graduate who has finished successfully and is currently attending the Outpatient program. Louis is a current trainee in the construction field.

While he attended Here's Help, Louis participated in the Computer Tech class where he progressed from 23 WPM to 53 WPM all while learning 21st-century computer skills for today.

His therapist described him as a pleasure to work with and had really seen him progress during his stay at Here's Help.

Henry T.

Henry T. is a level 4 client who is pursuing his forklift license with Here's Help, Inc.'s new partner, Gang Alternative.

Currently, Henry is working with Sodexo Live at the Hard Rock during the Dolphins football season and other live events like the Miami Open.

NEW WEBSITE

After a significant period, we made the strategic decision to completely overhaul our website this year. Our revamped online presence now showcases a modern, intuitive, and visually appealing design. Through this update, we aim to expand our digital footprint, enhance our reach, and further communicate our role as a committed community partner in healing. Visit the new website at hereshelpinc.org to explore our initiatives and impact.

PLUMBING CLASS

The plumbing class has enhanced its hands-on training to include bathroom construction, pipe installation, safety practices, code compliance, and certification preparation.
